_____)

On June 2, 2005, under Fed.R.Crim.P. 11, the Government and the Defendant entered into a stipulated plea agreement whereby they agreed that a specific sentence was the appropriate disposition of the above-referenced cases. Fed.R.Crim.P. 11(c)(1)(C). The Court may accept or reject this type of plea agreement. On February 2, 2006, the time set for sentencing, the Court rejected the plea agreement. Thereafter, the Court advised the Defendant on the record of his rights.

To permit the Defendant adequate opportunity to discuss his available options with counsel and decide how he wishes to proceed, this matter is set over to Thursday, February 9, 2006 at 8:30 a.m. in Yakima, Washington. The Court also notes that Defendant's Motion to Dismiss Petition for Revocation of Supervised Release (Ct. Rec. 106) filed May 2, 2005 in CR-96-2011-LRS, remains pending.
